THE HILLIFE 1936

Published by The Senior Class
of
Chapel Hill High School
Chapel Hill, N. C.

FOREWORD

THIS is the first time since 1934 that the seniors have attempted to put out an annual. This year they have been able to accomplish this through earnest and conscientious work, the utmost cooperation and support on the part of the school, and, last but not least, the advocacy of Dr. Gwynn for which he deserves heartiest thanks and gratitude. The staff's final hope is that the fruit of their labor meets the approval of its subscribers.

DEDICATION

To Dr. George Howard, whose loyal friendship and whose constant efforts in our behalf have made our high school days enjoyable, we dedicate this volume of
"HILLIFE."

IN MEMORIAM

ERNEST ESTON ERICSON

Born: September 12, 1919

Died: February 8, 1936

*"That God, which ever lives and loves,
One God, one law, one element,
And one far-off divine event,
To which the whole creation moves."*

—Tennyson.

RALPH P. ANDREWS

Treasurer Senior Hi-Y, 4; Senior Hi-Y, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 4; Chorus, 3.

"R. P." is an all-round good sport. Everyone in the class knows this. He takes life easy and never seems to worry about anything. He has always given the school loyal and strong support.

ANNIE L. ATWATER

Secretary Basketball Club, 3; Chorus, 3, 4; Sports Club, 3.

Behold a girl who has a very contagious laugh. She always sees the bright side of things. Upon acquaintance and a knowledge of her interest and enthusiasm in whatever she undertakes, one is not surprised that her classmates all like her.

JEAN BRECKENRIDGE

Secretary Dramatic Club, 3; Vice-President Dramatic Club, 4; Proconian Staff, 4; Managing Editor Hillife, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; State Dramatic Contest, 3; Honorable Mention Poetry Contest, 3; Operetta, "Cherryblossom."

We mustn't judge Jean by her size. Although she's one of the smallest in the class she's one of the best.

ROBERT W. CALDWELL

Basketball, 1, 2; Manager Basketball, 3; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Hi-Y, 3; Chorus, 4.

It's really a joy to watch Bob. He always looks so contentedly comfortable and never seems to have to rush around like the rest of us. Nevertheless, he has done a lot and we're proud of him.

WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, JR.

Model Airplane Club, 3; Music Club, 3; Dramatic Club, 4; Football, 3; Basketball, 4.

W. R. takes an active part in all school activities, but especially does he "shine forth" in football and basketball. A good sport and a true pal—a boy we shall never forget when we are no longer classmates.

ROBERT C. ANDREWS, JR.

Chorus, 3, 4; Advertising Manager Hillife, 4; Class Pest.

"Bob" is a small member of our class, but true worth isn't measured in size. He's one of these people who keep your spirits up when everybody else is "down and out". We all know he'll be one swell doctor.

Anne Bagby ANNE E. BAGBY

Vice-President Chorus, 3; President Chorus, 4; Secretary Senior Class, 4; Manager Basketball, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 2; Proconian Staff, 2, 3; Hillife Staff, 2; Home Economics, 3; 2nd place in Poetry Contest; H. S. Trio, 3.

Nice going, Anne!

FRANCES L. CALDWELL

Chairman Junior-Senior Entertainment Committee, 3; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Proconian, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 3; Hi-Y, 3, 4.

"Fran" is just swell! She has made an enviable record at C. H. H. S. and is one of its most popular students. We know she'll prove a valuable asset anywhere.

PHYLLIS CAMPBELL

Hillife Staff, 4; Hi-Y, 4.

Who said blondes were dumb? Well, here's definite proof that they aren't. Phyllis gets A's on most of her work and still finds time for outside activities. As to her looks—well—picture a modern version of Diana.

D. D. CARROLL

Tennis, 1, 2, 3; Proconian, 1, 2, 3; Art Editor of Proconian, 3; Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Secretary of Freshman Class; Debating Club, 3; Assistant Business Manager of Hillife; State High School Golf Tourney, 2, 4.

"D. D." is a grand sport. Everyone likes him and enjoys being with him. Here's luck to a swell boy!

ROY E. CLARK

Vice-President Senior Class, 4; Chief Marshal, 3; President Stamp Club, 3; Manager Football, 4; Manager Basketball, 4; Manager Boxing, 4; Proconian, 1; Hillife, 4; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Sports Club, 3; Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1; Football, 3; Dramatic Club, 4.

What more could be said than has already been shown?

MAXINE COLE

Chorus, 3.

Maxine doesn't talk much, but she's one of those people who doesn't have to talk to make you like her. She has a most lovable nature and is always sweet and sensible. She has won a place in our hearts which shall never be forgotten.

LINDON E. CORRELL

Sport Club, 3; Chorus, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; Baseball, 2; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Here's to the rising young baritone of our class! We won't remember Lindon for a quiet calm but for his general cheerfulness. He's also done creditable work in various sports. Bon courage, Lindon!

ANNIE E. DUNCAN

Sport Club, 3; Home Economics, 3.

During the four years of High School Elizabeth has stuck with us through thick and thin. She is the kind who says little but is a good listener. She has, therefore, a wealth of friends to wish her success in life.

THELMA I. DURHAM

Secretary-Treasurer Dramatic Club, 4; Treasurer Hi-Y, 4; Basketball, 2; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Junior Marshal, 3; State Dramatic Contest, 3.

Thelma is especially noted for her splendid work in the Dramatic Club. Her ability in this and other fields assures her a bright and happy future.

WALTER CLARK

Walter is a deserver of many superlatives but one of them deals with modesty which is probably a reason you may have heard little about him. He is conscientious, determined, and reserved, excelling in Boy Scout work. He hopes to enter U. N. C. Here's to a hard worker!

ALICE L. CONNER

Home Economics Club, 3; Secretary Home Economics Club, 3; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Chorus, 4; Treasurer Junior Class, 3; Hi-Y, 4.

Louise is a girl who always looks on the bright side of life. One never sees her when she's downcast. Her lovely red hair is admired by everyone in school.

CHRISTINE M. DOBBINS

Treasurer Hi-Y, 3; Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Home Economics, 3; Most Dignified.

Christine is always ready to laugh. One of the nice things about her is that she laughs at your worst puns. May her kind increase! No wonder we all like her and hope the best for her.

CELIA D. DURHAM

Secretary Junior Class; Write-up Editor Hillife, 4; Proconian, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 3; Chorus, 1, 2, 3; Most conceited.

Celia's bright black eyes have an impish, delightful way of flashing, and, for one so charmingly feminine, she is very efficient and brilliant.

WILLIAM T. EVANS

Sport Club, 2, 3, 4.

It is through his friendliness and likeable disposition that Thomas has won the highest respect from his friends. We are sure his future will be as successful as his high school career has been.

LUCILLE FOISTER

Home Economics, 3.

We wish we knew Lucille better for we like her ready smile and her soft voice. Her gentle manner indicates a very pleasing personality. She is a very unassuming, shy little person, but she seems to have many friends. We wish her happiness.

JUANITA M. GARRETT

Chorus, 3, 4; Economics Club, 3.

We don't have to give three guesses who's coming when Juanita hits Senior Hall. She is full of life and has a smile for everyone. In whatever field she plans to direct her talents we know that she cannot fail.

JANETT M. HOGAN

Home Economics, 3; Chorus, 3, 4; Most Unconscious.

We now turn to the most studious girl in our class. She probably has more knowledge now than many of us will ever have. She is reserved in a crowd but a real friend among friends.

DAVID A. HOWARD

Stamp Club, 3; Debating Club, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Basketball, 4; Proconian, 4; Dramatic Club, 4.

Some members of his sex might well profit by David's example. He seldom speaks unnecessarily and when he does talk he does it economically. Boys like David make a way in the world.

ROBERT A. KOCH

President Hi-Y, 2; Stamp Club, 2; Hi-Y, 1, 2, 3; Chorus, 4.

Bobby looks to us like a young musician or poet but vehemently protests that he is neither. He has a knack for making and holding friends and is very loyal to them all. We know the future holds eminence for Bob.

HELEN L. FRINK

Roeliff Jansen H. S.; Home Economics, 3; Chorus, 2, 3; Proconian, 3, 4; Most Original.

With her long eyelashes and wistful grace, Helen might well be the subject of a poem or song. But don't mistake us. She's too peppy and has too much originality for a languishing maid.

CHARLES B. GIDUZ

Proconian, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Tennis Team, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; 1st Place State Music Contest, 3; Hillife Staff, 4; Chorus, 4.

You should hear "Benny" coax notes out of a trumpet. He also has a yankee accent and, nevertheless, a "whole passel" of admirers.

VANCE W. HOGAN

Sport Club, 3, 4.

Vance is the quiet type, very unassuming, and yet outstanding among his classmates. With his fine spirit of fellowship, seriousness of purpose, Vance will go on, achieving the fine things of life, and meeting with the success that he deserves.

MARGARET L. HUDSON

President Senior Class; Vice-President Sophomore Class; President Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Proconian, 1, 2; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Junior Marshal; Write-up Staff of Hillife, 4.

We can't say enough wonderful things about our class president. Her achievements and attractions are countless.

LESLIE J. KURFEES

Raleigh H. S.; Chorus, 3, 4; Home Economics, 3.

Leslie came to us from Raleigh High School her sophomore year. Since then she's become a most valuable member of our class. She has a pleasing personality and is well-liked by the whole class. Best wishes, Leslie!

JANIE E. LONG

Home Economics, 3; Hi-Y, 4; Treasurer Class, 2.

A sweet smile and a pair of laughing blue eyes make a perfect front for Janie's loving personality. She is a rising musician and a conscientious worker. See her dimple? We love it.

THOMAS MCINTOSH

Tennis, 2; Proconian, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Hillife, 4; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4.

Put my word, what a geyser of wit! Tommy's cracks are quite as definitely a part of him as his bright red hair and abundant freckles. We are proud of this year's Proconian. Good work, Tommy.

MARY F. ODUM

Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4; Proconian, 1, 2, 3; Secretary Hi-Y, 3; President Hi-Y, 4; Poetry Prize, 3; Music Contest Honors, 1, 2, 3.

Here's to our most talented senior! The success of the Hi-Y Club this year was due to Mary Frances' fine leadership. Honors to her for brilliant work in art, poetry, and, last, but not least, in music.

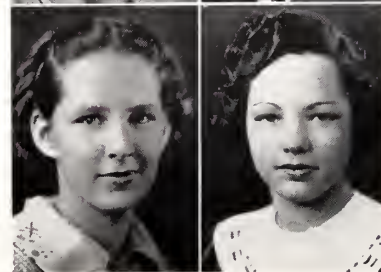

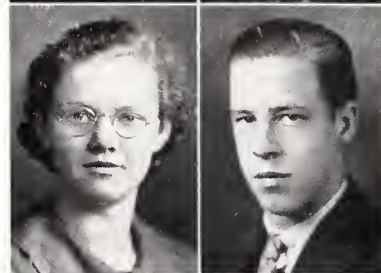

DOROTHY K. PATTERSON

Coates H. S.; Home Economics, 3; Hi-Y, 4.

Dorothy is very sincere and unaffected. She is efficient in her studies and is well versed in the fact that there is a time for work and a time for play. We feel sure that she will win many friends in later life as she has in her youth.

ANNE L. RABORG

Anne Lee is one of the most irresistible little persons in the world. One look at those blue eyes and the hardest heart will melt. It would be an impossibility not to like one who always has something friendly or kind to say to everyone.

WILLIAM A. MCCAULEY

Chorus, 3; Dramatic Club, 4; Boxing, 3, 4; Class Baby.

A more good-natured or thoroughly likeable person than William would be hard to find. He never seems to worry and is very friendly. With his muscles he might easily pose for "Are you man or mouse" advertisements.

CHARLES MOWRY

Easy come, easy go. Life seems to be just a bowl of cherries to Charles. He certainly shines on Dr. Farrar's word test though. (That's more than most of us seem to have done!) Charles is nearly always surrounded by a bunch of friends. His black hair and eyes are distinctive.

JUANITA E. PARRISH

Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4; President Chorus, 3; Secretary Chorus, 2; Vice-President Junior Class, 3.

Juanita is especially noted for her voice. She hopes some day to make it famous. We know that with her infectious smile and charming personality she will be a real success.

FRED PULLEN

President of Sophomore Class, 2; Football, 2, 3; Sports Club, 2; Boxing, 4.

Fred's record speaks for itself. He's always taken an active part in athletics and has been quite a star. He's an all-round good sport and a swell fellow. Here's to you, Fred.

LENNA W. RIGGSBEE

Dramatic Club, 3.

Lenna is another of our small members. Her cheerfulness is always apparent even when there's a French quiz next period. Lenna is a girl who will never be forced to accept a back seat in life.

MARY L. RIGGSBEE

Basketball, 3, 4; Sport Club, 3.

To understand Mary one must know her. Once your friend she is always your friend. She is fond of athletics and above all basketball. Though she is very quiet she has determination in all she does. We feel sure that success will crown her efforts.

JUNIUS I. SCALES

Greensboro H. S.; Fort Lauderdale H. S.; Hi-Y, 4.

Junius is another newcomer, but he has quickly adjusted himself to his surroundings and made many friends. His curly white hair and neatness of appearance are distinctive. Here's to happy days, Junius.

BILLY SPARROW

Although Billy towers far above our heads he doesn't have a condescending air. He's a hard worker, serious-minded, and unusual combination of brain and brawn. His bashful smile and blonde hair are a part of his attraction for us.

WILLIAM E. STONE, JR.

Sports Club, 3; Chorus, 3, 4.

Edgar is a hard-working boy, which is certainly a valuable asset to anyone. He has been too busy during his high school career to take an active part in athletics.

EDNA I. SUITT

Treasurer Home Economics Club; Chorus, 1, 2; Dramatic Club, 4.

Edna is another one of our fine seniors—a girl of dignity and poise, who has a wonderful way of making everybody like her without even trying. Her hair, her crowning beauty, is the envy of every girl in school.

FRANCES M. RIGGSBEE

Chorus, 3, 4; Basketball Club, 3; Basketball, 2, 3.

To see Frances on class one would think she never had anything but an orderly and studious thought in life, but on the outside she is a good sport. At her special interest, basketball, she has made a big success.

LLOYD M. SENTER

Lloyd is one of the few boys in the class who isn't constantly being called down for loud talking. However, don't get the idea that he is the "goody-goody" kind. Far from it! He's a swell sport any way you look at it. He certainly deserves the best of breaks.

EDNEY W. STACY

Lenoir H. S., 1; Wilkesboro H. S., 2; Secretary Current Events Club, 3; Hi-Y, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4; Red Cross Representative, 4.

Webb is a conscientious student and a likeable boy. He hasn't been with us long but is quite prominent; and we wish him luck.

MALLIE J. STONE

Mallie has been too busy during his high school career to take part in outside activities. However, you don't have to be a good athlete to be a good boy. We might say about Mallie that he's "not too sober, and not too gay, but a true blue boy in every way."

MARGARET C. THOMPSON

Home Economics, 3; Chorus, 3, 4.

Petite, dainty, chic—all these words come to our minds when we think of Christine. (We could sum all this up by saying she was cute, but we dislike the word.) Christine is an earnest worker and deserves success.

DOUGLAS S. TRABUE

Roosevelt H. S., 3; Washington, D. C.; University H. S., 1; Minnesota; Hi-Y, 2; Class Poet, 4.

If other people were as energetic as Douglas maybe they would accomplish more. We have found him to be of pleasing personality, kind-hearted, and friendly.

ALTON J. UTLEY

Hi-Y, 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President Hi-Y, 2; Treasurer Hi-Y, 3; Vice-President Hi-Y, 4; Student Council, 3; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Chorus, 1, 2; Debating Club, 3; Basketball, 2, 4; Tennis Manager, 4.

Alton is original in every sense of the word. However, we don't mind his eccentricities. We think he's swell.

ELIZABETH M. WEAVER

Secretary Biology Club, 3; Treasurer Sports Club, 3; Vice-President Basketball Club, 2; Basketball Team, 1, 2, 3; Chorus, 4; Proconian, 4; Annual, 4.

Elizabeth has a spirit that we all admire. She always shoulders her part of the burden with a smile.

MARY WHITE

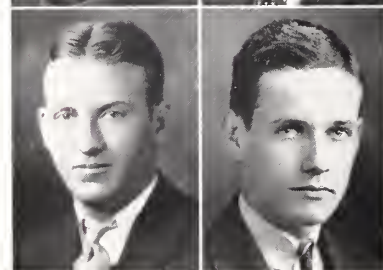

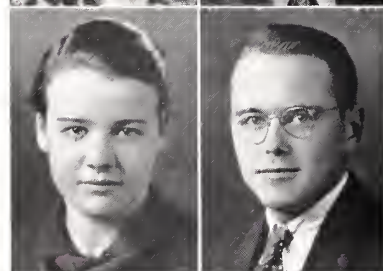

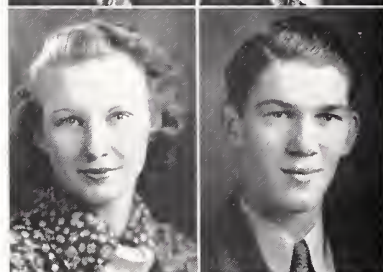

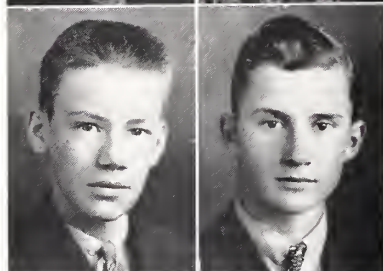

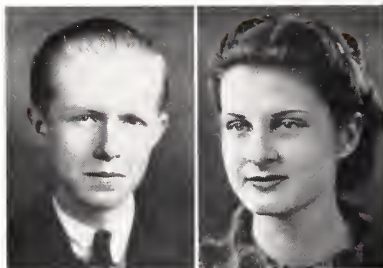

Home Economics, 3; Hi-Y, 4.

Mary is always pleasant and seems to possess a real talent in being able to be attentive in class. We less fortunate individuals do not begrudge this but we do envy her. She is so sincere that we all like her.

JOHN L. WITHROW

Football, 4.

John will always be remembered as a quiet boy but deeply in earnest. He just came to us this year, but that makes it none the less hard for the school to lose him. We're looking forward to a great future for him.

A. JUANITA TRIPP

President Freshman Class; President Junior Class; President Home Economics Club, 3.

Tall, poised, and lovely, Juanita resembles a Grecian statue. She is one of the most popular girls in school and a good student. We know good things are in store for you, Juanita.

LEWIS VICKERS

President Senior H. R.; Chorus, 3, 4; Honorable mention in Poem Contest, 3; Proconian, 4.

Our Latin scholar! Our symbol of wit! These and many exclamations of similar nature are always coupled with Lewis Vickers' name. No wonder we admire him.

MAX WEAVER

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 1, 2, 3; Baseball, 2; Glee Club, 3; Dramatic Club, 4; Annual Staff, 4; Sports Club, 3.

Max is extremely versatile. He indulges in all forms of athletics, sings, acts, and writes. (If you don't believe me, look at his list.) He is very well liked by everyone.

LESTER WILSON

Chorus, 2, 3, 4.

Lester is one of the few quiet boys in the Class of '36. Due to the fact that he lives out of town he is unable to take part in organized sports. Lester is always eager to learn—a quality which makes for success.

RICHARD S. WRIGHT

Asheville H. S., 1, 2, 3; Treasurer Senior Class; Proconian, 4; Annual, 4; Basketball, 4; Hi-Y, 4; Chorus, 4.

Without "Dick" we would have no annual. In the one short year "ye ed" has been here he's filled a place that will never be forgotten. Bonne chance, Dick!

CLASS HISTORY OF 1936

FRESHMEN

It all began long ago in September, '32. . . Introductions: Mrs. Heinitch— $a^2 + b^2 = ?$. . . Mrs. Lawson—sumus, estis, sunt—"Little boy, you can't do that." . . . Specialized in one's English I, Math I, Latin I, etc . . . into the maze. . . Class elections, Juanita Tripp. . . President. . . "Aw, we don't want a girl!". . . we got one anyway. . . Mid-terms. . . Finals . . . then we turned. . .

SOPHOMORES

Improved our nonchalance . . . we met Latin in two's, Geometry, "the area of a parallelogram." . . General science. . . "Man has proceeded far." . . Class elections, Fred Pullen. . . President . . . we got our boy. . . "Miss Cherryblossom." . . The Seniors produced an annual. . . Most of us passed our finals . . . in order to become. . .

JUNIORS

We became old hands . . . and Frenchmen . . . "to 'er' is human" (Giduz). . . Dr. Howard and student government . . . demerits. . . "We got a million of 'em." . . . Algebra III, Mr. Munch . . . and something about "Waterloo." . . Class rings. . . "We can give them to our girls". . . for $8.00. . . Class elections—Juanita Tripp. . . President. . . "A little lady shall lead us all". . . then June . . . its exams . . . which we survived so that we could be. . .

SENIORS

The lofty pedestal . . . engraved with vague mutterings of Macbeth . . . and Life of Johnson . . . courtesy of Dr. Farrar. . . French II with that punning pedagogue. . . Chemistry (NaCl plus H_2SO_4) . . . and hoarse Miss Phillips . . . from Fredericksburg. . . Class elections—Louise Hudson . . . President . . . she's a good 'un. . . Annual. . . Superlatives . . . ad getting. . . Things are growing fainter. . . Finals . . . no recapturing . . . that lost youth. . . It was fun . . . will always remember . . . as we turn to . . .

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

JUNIUS SCALES and LESTER WILSON have become heap big "G" Men and are snooping around trying to locate CHARLES MOWRY'S suspenders which were skillfully stolen while he was enjoying the tap-dancing of BOBBY CALDWELL, BILLY SPARROW, and LOUISE CONNER, known as the Dixie Red-Heads, who were performing at that notorious night club, "Bide a Wee," run by ELIZABETH DUNCAN and LEWIS VICKERS.

JANETT HOGAN has become a gunman's moll, and is saying "Stick 'em up!" to a dignified Mr. THOMAS MCINTOSH, who, incidentally, is scared stiff and is screaming for his wife, CHRISTINE DOBBINS.

THOMAS EVANS has become a most extraordinary dentist whose specialty is tooth pulling. He tells his timid patient, MAX WEAVER, that he won't feel a thing while his gentle assistant, PHYLLIS CAMPBELL, kindly obliges by knocking the lucky one on the head with a crowbar.

Next door ELIZABETH WEAVER still has true aim, although brick-bats and rolling pins have been substituted for basketballs. Poor DAVID HOWARD is the victim of her wifely affection.

BOBBY KOCH and THELMA DURHAM are partners in a very thriving business. One runs a weiner stand while the other is the city dog catcher.

BOBBY ANDREWS is the iceman mouse playing around the icebox with MARY LEE WHITE, while the cat, hubby LLOYD SENTER, is away.

In the movies LOUISE HUDSON is the great star taking the part of the sea hag in that famous tragedy called the "Blue Goon" (ouch). ANNE BAGBY is just one of the Goon Girls. Popeye is WEBB STACY.

MALLIE and EDGAR STONE are professional house hunters and are whizzing and booing around the gloomy mansion of that stately old couple, DICK WRIGHT and DOROTHY PATTERSON.

ROY CLARK and ANNIE LILLIAN ATWATER have made a fortune by the invention of perfectly marvelous cold pills, and are now quite happy cutting out paper dolls in the hospital while recuperating from pneumonia.

W. R. CAMPBELL supplies the swimming pool of Chapel Hill with diving equipment. He and FRANCES RIGGSBEE have three offsprings. (catch)

MARY LOIS RIGGSBEE and her meek husband, LINDON CORRELL, run a bakery. He makes the pastry, she makes the "dough."

CELIA DURHAM has become postmaster-general of Carboro. She just loves to be around the "males."

ALTON UTLEY grinds wheat into flour in the mills near dear old N. C. Yes, you've guessed it. He's a Carolina miller.

HELEN FRINK has become a great singer, especially around Christmas time, when she sings "carrolls."

JUANITA GARRETT, who has got what it takes, has opened a charm school, assisted by Misses LESLIE KURFEES and CHRISTINE THOMPSON. Her best customer is JEAN BRECKENRIDGE, who is learning fast.

MARY FRANCES ODUM is running a monkey business. She operates a hurdy-gurdy on the sidewalks of New York, and her little beast has collected quite a fortune for her. Incidentally, CHARLES GIDUZ is her monkey.

Some of the members of the Class of '36 have become college professors. WILLIAM MCCAULEY is professor of Greek at Darkmouse (I smell a rat). R. P. ANDREWS is professor of chemistry at Stale, while LUCILLE FOISTER is cheerleader at Grouchers.

JANIE LONG has become a leading woman surgeon. She always did like to play on organs.

FRANCES CALDWELL strums a banjo for JUANITA PARRISH and JUANITA TRIPP, who sing on vaudeville tours.

EDNA SUITT runs a men's clothing store. Her name implies that this is the only profession she could follow.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1936, of Chapel Hill High School, in this, our last will and testament, leave behind us, with mingled regret and relief, a few of our possessions to those who most deserve and need them.

- Item I: To Dan Hamilton, Bobby Andrews leaves his title of class pest.
- Item II: Louise Hudson, class beauty, reluctantly gives up her ever-present mirror to pretty Dot Page.
- Item III: With due respect to Mary Frances Odum, we leave her exotic charm to Ashwell Harward.
- Item IV: Janett Hogan wills her maidenly modesty to Arthur Woods.
- Item V: We hope that Carl Snavelly will use his gift, Christine Thompson's cuteness, to best advantage.
- Item VI: Louise Conner wills her fair complexion to Latane Wright.
- Item VII: Lewis Vickers' quiet dignity is left, after much pondering, to T. C. Farrell.
- Item VIII: Alton Utley's and Charles Giduz's scandal column goes to the garbage can.
- Item IX: Feeling that Brewster Rogerson has been willed enough bass voices and athletic abilities in preceding years, we deem him perfect by now, and bequeath him nothing.
- Item X: Charles Mowry wills his "Suthun" drawl to Yankee Marie McClelland, with best wishes for a slow success.
- Item XI: Bobby Koch, one of the long line of scientific Koches, leaves his knowledge of Chemistry to Pem Rees, who probably won't need it.
- Item XII: Anne Bagby wills fifteen pounds (in weight) to Rachel Howard.
- Item XIII: Alton Utley gives all his romantic self, including German haircut, to Carolyn Miller, who would get it anyway.
- Item XIV: To our under-classmen we will the example which our smiling faces and cheery dispositions have set for them (exclamation point) !
- Item XV: To our faculty we will and owe thanks for our finally being able to take part in these commencement exercises.

HELEN FRINK, Testator.

The Dramatic Club has accomplished a great deal this year. It entered the State Dramatic Contest with the play "Peggy", by Rachel Crothers, which turned out very well. Soon after the contest, the "Dramatic Cargo" was given. Members have been interested all year in acting, play-writing, play production, make-up, and stage models.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL

During the first term of the Summer Session of 1936 (June 11 to July 22) the University of North Carolina will provide in Chapel Hill some high school courses for those who are deficient in preparation for admission to college or who desire a better preparation for college admission.

Students in the Chapel Hill High School who are deficient in preparation for college or who wish better preparation for admission to college will find exceptional opportunities in the University High School in the summer of 1936.

For further information write to the Secretary, Summer Session, Chapel Hill or telephone 3601.
